

Reading Project - 'Slam' by Nick Hornby: Lesson 06: Round Up & Reference techniques

Unterrichtsphase	Inhalt	Umsetzung	Erwartungen und Kommentare
------------------	--------	-----------	----------------------------

entworfen von Jonas Dirkschnieder --- heruntergeladen von www.schueler-ecke.info

(Foreshadowing) and Discussion

Formulate own thoughts on the plot

Einstieg	"Holiday-Chat" - Warm Up
Erarbeitung I	Comparisons	Herleitung vom "Computer Game" - p.117 Two new Comparisons: 1. Al Quaida Baby - p.125 2. The Hump in the Road - p.199 Klasse wird 2 geteilt, erarbeitet den entsprechenden Comparison,	(1. Relationship Man & Wife p.?)
Erarbeitung II	Writing Technique	How to Quote; How to make a statement, and how to underline that statement. In the book SLAM by Nick Hornby, the narrator describes his life with the use of various comparisons. Whenever Sam, the protagonist and narrator of the story, wants to underline his situation and feelings, he presents the reader with a link to something, that most people know from their everyday life. One example for this would be	Vorbereitung der Essay in der Schularbeit What, Where and most of all WHY
Discussion	What do you think about the second half of the book? Does Sam change in any way? Do you think Sam is described in an authentic manner? Would you call the ending a "Happy Ending"? Your thoughts about time travel.	One Student wrote that Sam becomes mature and conqueres his fears. One mentioned Sam not being described authentic Two students mention 'happy ending' in two different ways. One student has an interesting argument for the time travel.	